

Join us on Tuesday January 19, 2010 for a general education training session:

Taxes - What's New and What Might be Coming?

James Cole a partner from BST will go over some of the recent tax law changes that will affect 2009 tax returns and share some thoughts on what changes are on the horizon for 2010 and beyond.

Date: Tuesday 01/19/2010

Place: Italian American Community Center, Washington Ave Extension

Time: Registration begins at 11:30 AM

Lunch begins at Noon

Speaker will directly follow the lunch

Cost: $15.00 Members of the Albany ACFE Chapter

$20.00 Non-Members of the Albany ACFE Chapter

Meal Choices: Chicken Parm, Stuffed Filet of Sole or Vegetarian (Pasta Primavera or Salad)

CPE: 1

Registration: Please contact Kim Dunbrook-Babbie at 518-262-5496 or email at Dunbrok@mail.amc.edu on or before Friday January 15, 2010. Please include your meal choice.

Cancellation Policy:

Substitutions can be made at any time up until the time of the Luncheon. Registration fees will not be refunded for cancellations made after Friday January 15, 2010. No-shows will be individually responsible for full payment.

Speaker Biography

James W. Cole, CPA, Partner, BST

jcole@bstco.com

Jim brought over fifteen years of public and private financial, tax and accounting experience to BST when he joined the original Bollam Sheedy & Torani & Co. LLP in 1994. Since relocating to the Capital Region in 1989, he has built a strong reputation for expert, current technical knowledge in the constantly changing areas of corporate, partnership and individual taxation.

Jim returned East in 1989 and joined a Capital Region CPA firm, where he was Senior Tax Manager until joining BST in 1994. While Jim's tax background is extensive and broad, he has particular expertise in the construction and medical practice areas, as well as working with closely-held businesses and their owners.

Jim was named Partner in 1998 and in that capacity, he provides tax representation and consulting services to a large number of BST's clients. In addition, he oversees the staffing, planning, continuing education, training and many other administrative aspects of BST's busy tax practice.

Jim graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Rochester Institute of Technology in 1979 and is a Certified Public Accountant.